PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Make us instruments of thy peace,
Where there is hatred, let us show love;
Where there is injury, Pardon;
Where there is discord, Union;
Where there is doubt, Faith;
Where there is despair, Hope;
Where there is darkness, Light;
Where there is sadness, Joy
O Divine Master, Grant us that we may not,
So much seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is by giving that we receive,
It is by pardoning that we are pardoned;
It is in dying that we are born to eternal

Thugen chiamtehtak khenkhat:

- Your talk walks, and your walk talks, and your walk talks further than your talk walks.
- True gospel preaching should:
  1. Enlighten the mind
  2. Disturb the Conscience
  3. Energize the will and
  4. Stir the Heart.
- You can always tell more about a person by what he says about others than by what others say about him.
- Eight problems of the Church:
  1. Unbended knee.
  2. Unread Bible
  3. Unattended Church
  4. Unpaid Tithe
  5. Unrealized Cross of Christ.
  6. Unpassionate heart.
  7. Unconcerned for lost souls.
  8. Unforgiving spirit.

Quotations from Hudson Taylor:

- It will not do to say that you have no special call to go to China. With these facts before you, you need rather to ascertain whether you have a special call to stay at home.
- I have found that there are three stages in every great work of God. First, it is impossible; secondly, it is difficult, and then it is done.
- God's work, done in God's way, will never lack God's supply.
- When the Lord Jesus gives a definite command, is it our place to ask whether it can be done or not?

- To have missionaries and no money would be no trouble to me. For God is bound to care for His own. He does not want me to assume his responsibility. But to have money and no missionaries would be serious indeed.
- Far better to have no money at all, even to buy food, for there are plenty of ravens in China, and the Lord could send them again with bread and flesh.
